ADVOCATE OF JUSTICE AWARD PRESENTED TO REP. MIKE HOLCOMB

Little Rock, Arkansas (February 20, 2020) –

The Arkansas Prosecuting Attorneys Association (APAA) recently presented Rep. Mike Holcomb (District 10) with the 2019 Advocate of Justice Award in recognition of his work during the 92nd General Assembly in support of victims of crime and prosecution efforts.

The APAA is made up of 28 Elected Prosecuting Attorneys and 250 Deputy Prosecuting Attorneys representing all 28 Judicial Districts in Arkansas.

“As a former law enforcement officer and former county judge, I have a deep appreciation for the relentless work of our prosecutors,” said Rep. Holcomb. “Their recognition means a great deal and I’m truly honored.”

Rep. Mike Holcomb represents District 10, which includes portions of Lincoln, Cleveland, Grant, Drew, and Jefferson counties. He is serving his 4th term in the Arkansas House and his second term as chair of the House Public Transportation Committee. He spent 28 years in public education as a teacher and administrator. Rep. Holcomb previously served as Jefferson County Judge and served on the Jefferson County Quorum Court.
