

Arkansas House Newsletter

April 30, 2021

Proposed Constitutional Amendments from the 93rd General Assembly

STATE OF ARKANSAS
House of Representatives

Constitutional Amendments

SJR10

Would allow the General Assembly to call a special session upon the submission of a written proclamation with signatures from at least 2/3 of both the House & Senate membership.

SJR14

Arkansas Religious Freedom Amendment. It states government may burden a person's freedom of religion only if it demonstrates that application of the burden is in furtherance of a compelling government interest and is the least restrictive means of furthering that interest.

SJR10 would allow the General Assembly to call a special session upon the submission of a written proclamation with signatures from at least 2/3 of both the House and Senate membership.

SJR14-Arkansas Religious Freedom Amendment. It states government may burden a person's freedom of religion only if it demonstrates that application of the burden is in furtherance of a compelling government interest and is the least restrictive means of furthering that interest.

HJR1005 would require statewide ballot initiatives and constitutional amendments to receive 60% of the vote before becoming law.

Proposed constitutional amendments approved by the General Assembly will be on the November 2022 ballot.