

Arkansas House Newsletter

February 8, 2023

Daily Summary for Wednesday, February 8, 2023

On Wednesday, the House passed HCR1007. The resolution provides for an extension of the current session. It calls for the General Assembly to recess on April 7 and to adjourn Sine Die on May 1.

The House also passed the following:

HB1210-This bill removes a tax credit requirement of recertification for individuals with a developmental disability that is expected to continue indefinitely.

HB1185-This bill states that a student who attended preschool in a non-resident school district for at least one year before kindergarten will not count against that school's 3% cap of non-residents under the School Choice Act of 2015.

HB1161-This bill creates the Support for Pregnant and Parenting Students Act. It allows pregnant and parenting students to have an additional 10 days of excused absence for a parenting mother and father after the birth of their child.

HB1197-This bill would disqualify a claimant from collecting unemployment compensation benefits for any week that the claimant fails to respond to an offer of employment or fails to appear for a previously scheduled job interview.

SB6-This bill creates a lifetime certificate of license for contractors who have reached the age of 65 and have been licensed as a contractor for at least 12 years.

The House will reconvene on Thursday at 1 p.m.