Covid-19 Response Update for July 1, 2020

Governor Asa Hutchinson announced today that training for Army National Guard troops scheduled for this weekend has been canceled.

The number of active COVID-19 cases in Arkansas has gone down from 5,976 yesterday to 5,757 today. This means that there were more recoveries than new cases today. The Governor also noted that the 10 most populous counties in Arkansas have had downward or flat trend lines in new cases.
